The petitioner is working as Part-time Sweeper in the Government Homoeo Hospital, Muvattupuzha. She was appointed on 11-11-2005 on a monthly remuneration of Rs.1650/-. The remuneration was subsequently increased to Rs.2,050/-. The petitioner apprehends that she will be replaced by a person appointed through Employment Exchange and she has sought for a direction to the respondents to appoint her as a regular Part-time Sweeper in the post which she presently holds.

2. According to the counsel for the petitioner the benefit of Ext. P2 Govt. Order can be extended to the petitioner also. The scheme brought into existence as per Ext. P2 is one to be enforced by the Government and it is seen that the provisions contained in Ext. P2 confer power on the Government to examine individual cases and to pass orders.

3. The petitioner has, therefore, to approach the Government for reliefs, if any, she may get in terms of Ext. P2. This writ petition filed without adopting such a course cannot be entertained. W.P.(C) is disposed of reserving the right of the petitioner to file appropriate representation before the Government and seek for orders. If representation is filed, the Government shall consider the same in accordance with law and orders passed as expeditiously as possible.

K.K. DENESAN
JUDGE
